

Chief Warrant Officer Four T. L. Williams

A native of Iowa, Chief Warrant Officer Four T. L. Williams attended basic training at Fort Jackson, SC on 29 February 1984 followed by Advance Individual Training as a Light Wheeled Vehicle Mechanic. In March 1988, she continued her military educational process and re-classified as into the Military Police Corps at Fort McClellan, AL.

During her career, Chief Warrant Officer Four Williams has served as a Mechanic, Shop Foreman, Patrol Supervisor, Special Agent, Protective Service Officer, Team Chief, Assistant Special Agent-in-Charge, Assistant Operations Officer, Assistant MACOM Policy Branch Chief, MACOM Policy Branch Chief, Commander, and Operations Officer.

Her assignments include 426th Supply & Service Battalion, Fort Campbell, KY; 97th Signal Battalion, Germany; Law Enforcement Activity, Fort McPherson, GA; Fort McPherson Resident Agency, Fort McPherson, GA; Protective Services Unit, Fort Belvoir, VA; Fort Hood Resident Agency, Fort Hood, TX; Headquarters, US Army Criminal Investigation Command, Fort Belvoir, VA; 20th Military Police Detachment (CID), Camp Casey, Korea; 1000th Military Police Battalion (CID), Fort Campbell, KY; 11th Military Police Battalion (CID), Fort Hood, TX and Iraq.

Her military education includes Light Wheeled Vehicle Mechanic Course, Supply and PLL Course, Basic Military Police Course, Primary Leadership Development Course, CID Apprentice Special Agent Course, Combating Terrorism on Military Installations, Basic Non-commissioned Officer Course, Protective Services Training, Advanced Fraud Investigation Course, Warrant Officer Candidate School, CID Special Agent Warrant Officer Basic Course, Airborne School, Anti-Terrorism Evasive Driving Course, Basic Forensic Pathology Course, Forensic Dentistry, Forensic Medicine Fellowship, Counter Drug Investigation Course, Child Abuse Prevention and Investigative Technique Course, Special Agent Laboratory Training Course, CID Special Agent Warrant Officer Advanced Course, and the Warrant Officer Staff Course.

Her civilian education includes Bachelor of Arts, Business Administration, Saint Leo College, Saint Leo, FL, Master of Forensic Sciences, The George Washington University, Washington, DC, and the FBI National Academy. Her awards include Bronze Star Medal; Defense Meritorious Service Medal; Meritorious Service Medal (3 Oak Leaf Clusters); Joint Service Commendation Medal; Army Commendation Medal (1 Oak Leaf Cluster); Army Achievement Medal (4 Oak Leaf Clusters); Driver/Mechanic Badge; Parachutist Badge and the Office of the Secretary of Defense Badge.